The US Dept. of Commerce's announcement on Monday that import duties on Canadian lumber would be reduced in August caused the futures market to drop $30 by the middle of the next day. Since then strength in the cash market has nearly erased that loss. Studs remain very strong with large increases in DF, SPF, and SYP. Gains in OSB accelerated boosted by strong order files at the mills and steady demand. Syp narrows, the lone standout in recent weeks continued their decline as mills are forced to run narrows due to lack of availability in larger logs. Pennsylvania's most famous rodent didn't see his shadow this year but you might want to hold off on breaking out that bikini!
