The election results and the FED announcing another quarter point cut to interest rates will have an impact on the economy, but those effects will take some time to feel. As far as the lumber market goes, DF and Spruce continue to push to YTD highs, with most items up 50-100/m from the bottom. In the South SYP has moderated from the frantic pace of past weeks, as buyers are firmly on the sidelines. OSB remains very tight, with the mills firmly in control across all areas of the country. Lean inventories to end the year and seasonal curtailments at the mill level may lead to more of the same for the foreseeable future.... Bengals at the Ravens tonight, PolyMarkets had it right on Tuesday, let see if the Ravens can keep the streak alive at 71% chance to win.
